COUNCIL FOR NATIVE HAWAIIAN ADVANCEMENT

Founded in 2001, the Council for Native Hawaiian Advancement is a national member based non profit dedicated to capacity building in Native communities in Hawaii and the Pacific through community development technical assistance and training, communications and consulting, public policy initiatives and the coordination of events and conferences. CNHA is one of the largest national organizations serving Native Hawaiians headquartered in Hawaii with over 150 member organizations and agencies working with and serving Native populations.

CNHA was established by 6 Charter & Founding Members serving as the initial Board of Directors. CNHA would like to thank the vision of our founding members for creating a mission that we strive to meet through our programs, advocacy and services. Today, CNHA is governed by an elected 15-member Board of Directors, representing a variety of community organizations and is managed by a President & CEO with 12 staff positions.

CNHA's vision is to have an engaged Hawaiian community strengthened by self-determination, cultural knowledge and identity that advances the well-being of the Hawaiian Islands and its people. Its mission is to serve Native Hawaiians through Policy, Economic Development and Community Development.

NATIONAL CAPACD

The National Coalition for Asian Pacific American Community Development is the first national advocacy organization dedicated to addressing the housing, community and economic development needs of diverse and rapidly growing AAPI communities.

Since its inception in 1999, National CAPACD has grown into a membership-based network of more than 100 community-based agencies and organizations in fourteen states that serve Asian American, Native Hawaiian, Pacific Islander, refugee, immigrant and low-income communities. We continue to bring together the talent and leadership of AAPI's to promote peer-to-peer learning, link organizations and resources to broader networks, develop strategic partnerships with financial institutions, intermediaries, and policy makers, and build alliances with immigrant, workers rights and other social change movements.

National CAPACD's mission is to be a powerful voice for the community development needs of AAPI communities and to strengthen the capacity of community-based organizations to create neighborhoods of hope and opportunities.
