

National Coalition for Asian Pacific American Community Development

9th ANNUAL CONVENTION

May 15, 2008 – May 17, 2008

Sheraton Park Hotel at the Anaheim Resort in Anaheim, CA

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Deadline: March 14, 2008

Scholarships are now available for students, representatives of growing and emerging AAPI communities, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander organizations, and National CAPACD member organizations to join us at our 9th Annual Convention, Vision, Voices, Votes: Standing Together for Justice & Equity! National CAPACD scholarships enable individuals to participate in our convention, providing opportunities to engage in the latest housing and community development issues affecting the AAPI community through issue-based policy discussions, skills development workshops, and tours of local AAPI communities. We encourage you to apply today!

Special consideration will be given to volunteers, workshop organizers and/or National CAPACD members. Scholarships are generally limited to one recipient per organization/institution; however, groups from organizations may also apply for reduced registration fees and support for travel costs.
