National CAPACD's AA and NHPI Creative Placemaking Learning Circle engages over 30 organizations from across the country that center creative and culturally-aligned strategies for advancing equitable development in AA and NHPI communities. Partnering with artists, storytellers, and culture bearers, these organizations employ strategies that include supporting local businesses, planning and protecting public spaces and other cultural assets, and building community connections to encourage a deeper exploration of the neighborhood and promote economic development and community safety. Together, these organizations share their ideas and experiences toward improving their own practice, while also helping to elevate awareness within the community development field of the unique strategies and values that drive creative placemaking in AA and NHPI communities across the country.

moderate-income communities and broaden opportunities for building wealth. The program uses multigenerational and culturally appropriate models to support financial education, coaching, and products that allow participants to save while building credit. In 2023, the program supported 11 CBOs to serve almost 1,900 low- and moderate-income Limited English Proficient (LEP) individuals and families.

In response to anti-Asian hate and violence and considering the role AA and NHPI communities can play in confronting anti-Black racism, National CAPACD supported 21 local community-based organizations in 2023. These organizations received flexible funding and other resources for racial healing and solidarity and to implement activities that build multi-racial coalitions and advance a progressive agenda for equitable and racially just community reinvestment.

Expenses $ 267,872. including grants of $ 0. Revenue $ 0.

320: Membership and Capacity Building - As a coalition, membership is the backbone of National CAPACD's work. We are committed and accountable to the organizations that sign on to join our coalition.
